WITNESSED:

PREAMBLE:

WHEREAS, it is the intent and purpose of the parties hereto to promote and improve the harmonious and economic relations between the Employer and its employees and to establish a basic understanding relative to the rates of pay, hours of work, and other conditions of employment consistent with the law;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of these promises and mutual covenants herein contained, the parties hereto agree with each other with respect to the employees of the Employer recognized as being represented by the PBA as follows:

ARTICLE I
RECOGNITION

1. The Employer recognizes the PBA as the exclusive representative for the purpose of collective negotiations with respect to the terms and conditions of employment of the members of the bargaining unit, which shall be defined as: all full-time police officers employed by the Employer, but excluding the Chief of Police and special officers.
2. The term "employee" as used hereinafter, shall be interpreted interchangeably with the term "Police Officer."

ARTICLE II
NEGOTIATION PROCEDURE

1. The Employer and the PBA agree, at the request of either party, to enter into negotiations for a Successor Agreement in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Public Employment Relations Commission. In such negotiations, each party shall be free to propose and negotiate with regard to all appropriate subjects, which it desires to place before the other for consideration. Such Agreement shall apply to all members of the bargaining unit and shall be reduced to writing and, after ratification, signed by the parties.
2. The parties mutually pledge that their representatives shall be clothed with all the necessary power and authority to make proposals, consider proposals, and make counter proposals in the course of negotiations, consistent with their status as representatives of their principals. No proposals shall be binding until formally approved by the principals.

ARTICLE III SEVERABILITY CLAUSE

1. In the event that any federal or state legislation, governmental regulation or court decision causes invalidation of any article or section of this Agreement, all other articles and sections not so invalidated shall remain in full force and effect, and the parties shall re-negotiate concerning any such invalidated provisions.
2. It is understood and agreed that upon mutual consent of both the Employer and the PBA that the two parties may meet for the purpose of affecting a change or providing an addendum to any section of this Agreement. It is further understood and agreed upon that the remaining sections of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

ARTICLE IV RETENTION OF BENEFITS

It is understood and agreed upon that all rights, privileges and benefits which the employees have heretofore enjoyed and are presently enjoying, shall be maintained and continued by the Employer during the term of this Agreement and not less than the highest standards in effect at the commencement of the negotiations resulting in this Agreement.

ARTICLE V GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. Definition
The term "grievance" as used herein means any controversy arising over the interpretation, application or alleged violation of policies or administrative decisions affecting terms and conditions of employment under this Agreement, and may be raised by an individual unit employee, a group of unit employees, or the PBA, at the request of any such individual or group (hereinafter referred to as the "grievant").
2. Steps of the Procedure
Step One: A grievance initially must be filed within thirty (30) calendar days from the date on which the act which is the subject of the grievance occurred or became known to the grievant, whichever is later. The grievance shall be submitted in writing to the Chief of Police, who may conduct a hearing regarding the grievance at his/her discretion, and shall render a decision, in writing, within fifteen (15) days of his/her receipt of the grievance.

Step Two: In the event the grievance is not resolved to the grievant's satisfaction at Step One, or in the event the Chief of Police has not served a timely written response at Step One, then within fifteen (15) days after the response date set forth in Step One, the grievant may present the written grievance and any written response(s) received at Step One to the Administrator or his/her designee.

The parties shall meet within ten (10) days of this submission and the Administrator, or his/her designee, shall have five (5) days thereafter to make a written response.

Step Three: In the event the grievance is not resolved to the satisfaction of the grievant at Step Two, or in the event the Administrator, or his/her designee, has not served a timely written response at Step Two, then within fifteen (15) days after the response set forth in Step Two, the grievant may notify the Township Committee, in writing of his/her intent to submit the grievance to the New Jersey Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) for binding arbitration. If the grievance is so submitted:

- A.) The arbitrator shall be required to deliver parties a written award, coupled with a written opinion setting forth detailed reasons, findings of fact, and conclusions of law utilized in making his/her award, by no later than thirty (30) days from the date of closing the hearings, or if oral hearings have been waived, then from the date of transmitting the final statements and proofs to the arbitrator. The arbitrator expressly has no authority to modify, add to, subtract from, or in any way whatsoever, alter the provisions of this Agreement.
- B.) Grievance meetings and hearings shall be held at mutually acceptable times and places. The grievant shall have at his/her request a representative from the PBA and/or a labor consultant to assist in the resolution of the grievance at such meetings and hearings.
- C.) The fees, expenses, and all other proper charges of the arbitrator shall be split equally between the parties; however, each party shall bear his/her own additional costs.
- D.) All grievance hearings scheduled in accordance with the provisions hereof shall be so scheduled so as to avoid time off from regular scheduled shifts. However, in the event a grievant, or witness called by him, is on duty, he/she shall be permitted to attend the said hearing without reduction or loss of pay.
- E.) No reprisals of any kind shall be taken by the Employer, or by any agent thereof, against any grievant or party participating in a grievance procedure or any member of the PBA by reason of such participation.

F.) All grievance hearings, conducted as outlined herein, shall be conducted in private and shall be attended by the respective parties and/or their representatives, in addition to any witnesses produced by either party for the purposes of testifying at such hearing.

ARTICLE VI
 HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

1. Hours of Work. The workday shall consist of not more than twelve (12) consecutive hours in a twenty-four (24) hour period except in cases of bona fide emergencies. The work period shall consist of 168 hours during a 28 calendar-day cycle under a 4-and-4 work schedule. Employees agree to report for duty fifteen (15) minutes prior to the start of their scheduled shift and shall be permitted to leave fifteen (15) minutes before the end of their tour of duty; provided that all necessary information has been disseminated to the relieving officer who shall be on duty.

Adjustments shall not be made in an employee's scheduled tours of duty, nor shall special police officers be called in to work instead of full-time officers, to avoid overtime.
3. Overtime Rate. All hours worked in excess of 168 hours during a 28 calendar-day cycle shall be compensated at 1-1/2 times the regular rate of pay with the employee having the option of direct cash payments or compensatory time off.

 - B.) Employees may accrue up to 480 hours of compensatory time which may be taken at any time subject to the approval of the Chief of Police, or his/her designee, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.
 - C.) Compensatory time shall be paid at the rate of the year it is withdrawn. This will be paid in separate check.
4. On-Call and Call-In. Employees shall each be provided with cell phones and will be required to be on-call in emergency situations only. In event an employee is called in to work during other than regularly scheduled hours (i.e., off-duty court or administrative appearances, police school, firearms qualification, special training, first aid training, etc.) he/she shall be guaranteed a minimum of two (2) hours pay at the rate of time and one-half (1-1/2).

5. Exchange of Duty. Employees shall be permitted to voluntarily swap their tours of duty subject to the approval of the Chief of Police, or his/her designee, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. This provision is not to be construed as to increase the Employer's overtime obligation.

6. Detective/Juvenile Officer. An officer assigned to the position of Detective/Juvenile Officer shall work a five-day, 42-hour week, consistent with the 168 hours in a 28-day work cycle. The specific daily hours shall be flexible with the officer submitting his/her anticipated hourly schedule for the following week in with his/her weekly time sheet. ARTICLE XXI EMPLOYEE RIGHTS DURING INVESTIGATIONS

The wide ranging powers and duties given to the department and its members involve them in all manners of contacts and relationships with the public. Out of these contacts may come questions concerning the actions of the members of the department. These questions may require investigation by superior officers. In an effort to ensure that these investigations are conducted in a manner, which is conducive to good order and discipline, the following rules are hereby adopted:

1. The interrogation of an employee shall be at a reasonable hour, preferably when the employee is on duty. If it is required that the employee report to headquarters on his/her off-duty hours, he/she shall be compensated on an overtime basis as set forth in this Agreement, unless it is determined that he/she was remiss in his/her duties or found guilty of a preferred charge.
2. The employee shall be informed of the nature of the investigation before any interrogation commences, including the name of the complainant. The information must be sufficient to reasonably apprise the employee of the nature of the investigation. If the employee is to be questioned as a witness only, he/she shall be so informed at the initial contact.
3. The questioning shall be reasonable in length. Reasonable respites shall be allowed. Time shall also be provided for personal necessities, meals, telephone calls, and rest periods as are necessary.
4. The complete interrogation of the employee shall be recorded mechanically and copies of tapes shall be provided to the PBA. "OFF THE RECORD" questions shall be allowed with mutual consent only. All recesses called during the questioning shall be recorded. The contents of the tapes shall be kept confidential during the course of the investigation and the tapes shall not be destroyed without mutual consent.
5. The employee will not be subject to any abusive language, nor shall he/she be threatened with transfer, dismissal, or other disciplinary punishment. No promise(s) or reward(s) shall be made as an inducement to answering questions.

6. In all cases and at every stage of the proceedings the Department shall afford an opportunity for the employee, if he/she so requests, to consult with counsel and/or PBA representative(s) before being questioned concerning any violation or complaint of any type, which may result in any disciplinary action being taken against said employee.
7. This article shall not preclude a supervisor's right to question subordinates relative to their daily activities.

ARTICLE XXII
PBA REPRESENTATIVE

1. Accredited representatives of the PBA who are police officers may enter the Employer's facilities or premises at reasonable hours for the purpose of observing work conditions of their constituents or assisting in the adjustment of grievances. When the PBA decides to have its representatives enter the Employer's facilities or premises, it will request permission from the Chief of Police, or his/her designee, in writing and such permission will not be unreasonably withheld.
2. The Employer agrees to grant time off without loss of regular pay, not to exceed six (6) days, to the PBA State Delegate to attend the annual PBA State Convention, provided two (2) weeks written notice specifying the dates of the convention is given to the Chief of Police by the Association. The employee shall sign the evaluation form, acknowledging his/her review of same (not agreement with it) immediately following the review. The employee shall make any response within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of his/her signature, which statement shall become part of the evaluation and placed in his/her personnel file.

ARTICLE XXVI
